COMPASSIONATE FEAST

and ROAST OF JOHN U. BACON

SPORTS AND ANIMALS: a winning combination!

As a business owner, you appreciate the power of loyalty. Like the loyalty of sports enthusiasts. And animal lovers. We're pleased to present an unparalleled opportunity to reach them both!

Join with the Humane Society of Huron Valley (HSHV) and John U. Bacon for the 13th annual Compassionate Feast, and you'll not only receive a tax deduction for your gift (as allowed by law), you'll also be recognized as an essential partner in saving thousands of animals in our community and will reach thousands of loyal supporters.

What is the Compassionate Feast? Who is John U. Bacon?

The Compassionate Feast is a year-end celebration, kicking off with an energetic cocktail hour followed by a multiple course vegetarian/vegan meal. The elegant affair also includes a beloved silent auction, which people eagerly anticipate every year (ideal for holiday gifts!). This year, we're excited to "roast" John U. Bacon, a bestselling author, award-winning speaker, commentator, teacher, coach and pillar of the community... not to mention an amazingly funny guy. Every year, the Compassionate Feast grows in attendance, and we're expecting this one to be our biggest ever.

Why should I join?

In addition to getting the attention and admiration of hundreds of focused and loyal people at the event, sponsors of HSHV's Compassionate Feast also receive valuable recognition on HSHV's website (52,000 visitors every month) and Facebook page (69,000 followers).

And for good reason: at 96% HSHV has the highest "save rate" among all similar shelters in Michigan. You're a vital part of this success. Simply put, sponsorships like yours are the reason we can continue saving lives.
